TWO GREAT TEAMS UNDER ONE UMBRELLA

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO, October 2020 – Susan Taylor and The Regan Team will join forces as of October 1, 2020 to give their clients the combined benefit of two first class, award winning, client-focused real estate teams under the umbrella name of The Regan Team, Royal LePage Real Estate Services Regan Real Estate.

With over a $1 billion in sales volume* and having helped thousands of families buy and sell houses, Susan Taylor is one of the most respected names in residential real estate. Susan's award winning career has spanned 33 years including many years as a Chairman's Club Recipient - the Top 1% of agents for Royal LePage - Canada's largest real estate company.

The Regan Team was founded in 1976 when Michael Regan began his real estate career. It was built by putting his clients' needs before his own. Today, that idea is at the forefront of The Regan Teams core business. Ranked 6th in Canada out of 18,500 agents for Royal LePage and with over 200 years of combined local market experience, the team's reputation of fair dealings and results orientated approach is what sets them apart and gives their clients confidence throughout the home buying and selling process.

"This is all about meeting growing client needs in the real estate realm," says Susan Taylor. "The management team, staff and agents are aligned. I'm committed to maintain these same high standards of service, always striving for new innovative ways to satisfy and serve our clients. Both companies complement each other in client services areas, vision and culture. It is a very exciting day for our clients."

"Whether you call it synergy, teamwork or something else, there is something special that happens when like-minded people come together with one common goal of being the absolute best we can so that we can offer our clients an unforgettable experience," says Matthew Regan, CEO, The Regan Team.
